CITY OFFICIALS AND CHAMBER OF COMMERCE DIRECTORS DISCUSS CO-OPERATION, GLENDALE NEEDS

Newly Elected Members Of Council, Organization Members And Committee Of Women Outline Betterments, 'Straight Ahead' Policy

Co-operation—that potent quality in personality—to shove Glendale "straight ahead" was the keynote sounded last night at one of the most lengthy dinner sessions ever held in the city. The meeting, held at the White Inn, was in the nature of a reception for the members of the newly elected city council by the Chamber of Commerce board of directors, at which a committee of representative women were present.

While members of the Chamber were invited, there were but few present, which gave opportunity for all to speak—a score or more feasting on the viands prepared by Mrs. Jack Thomas. Truly the food must have been inspiring to such talks as followed.

Maybe it was the visit to the nearly completed reservoir on Verdugo road near the intersection of Glendale avenue that gave the home town boosters their inspiration in outlining what Glendale needs—and what Glendale is going to get.

Co-operation among the members of the council, co-operation in the Chamber of Commerce, co-operation of the women of the city and the co-operation of everyone to make Glendale greater will echo from this epochal meeting at which problems confronting the city were frankly discussed with the watchword of "success" predominating.

The first expressions of policy were heard from the councilmen during the after-dinner speeches—some of which were long and others short.

Expressions of gratification on the part of the board of directors for the woman's part in the program was not small. In fact, it was enlarged to the extent that hereafter they will be more active in aiding both the Chamber and the city in its problems.

In other columns will be found a more detailed account of many of the individuals' views. Among those taking part were the following:

Mesdames Margaret I. Biggs, Dr. Caroline Paine-Jackman, E. W. W. Hayward, Ella W. Richardson, Dr. Jessie Russell and M. L. Tight.

Mayor Spencer Robinson, S. A. Davis, C. E. Kimlin and A. H. Lapham, members of the city council; C. C. Cooper, president, and Owen Emery, J. G. Huntley, Jesse Smith; J. A. Newton, D. L. Gregg, C. D. Lusby, Peter L. Ferry, directors of the Chamber of Commerce; James M. Rhoades, the secretary; T. W. Watson, city manager; Judge F. H. Lowe and R. S. Person.

NEW RESERVOIR TO BE FINISHED IN NEXT 30 DAYS

City Council Members and C. of C. Directors See Water Supply Project

Inspection yesterday evening of the nearly completed 7,500,000 gallon reservoir which Contractor Peter L. Ferry likely will be able to turn over to the city within the next thirty days gave the new members of the Glendale City Council as well as the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce and other members of the latter organization an insight into the completeness with which the water problem of the city is being solved.

The mammoth re-inforced concrete structure which goes twenty-four feet deep with a firty-five-foot slope covers two acres of ground near Verdugo Road above Glendale avenue in the canyon from whence Glendale gets its supply of water the year round.

When filled this reservoir will furnish pressure for water in a six-story building at Broadway and Brand boulevard. When put into use the new tank will add twenty-five pounds' pressure to all hydrant water where the pipes will permit.

The reservoir serves a dual purpose—one of economy which will relieve the booster pumps from the constant strain of carrying the strain of a city load which means as much as five million gallons of water daily. It also will serve as a convenience to avert a shortage in case the power plants should be crippled and pumping stopped.

Reservoir To Be Roofed

In addition to the substantial cement construction, there will be a roof made of redwood posts and an Oregon pine covering. In the cement work, it is interesting to note the seams and separately set piers for the posts.

Mr. Ferry, the contractor who is a director of the Chamber, was present in person to explain the place as well as City Manager T. W. Watson and Consulting Engineer H. B. Lynch.

According to a record kept of the work, the first excavating was done on February 14. A reservoir on a small scale, but similar in altitude and principle of operation is under construction as Tenth street and Grand View avenue.

Here's What They Said

SPENCER ROBINSON, Mayor of Glendale: "Some sixteen years ago Dr. Thompson preached in Los Angeles on the subject of "The Road Builders." At that time Glendale and Los Angeles had no boulevards; Spring street and Broadway were unpaved and I used to ride horseback to town. It was then that Dr. Thompson prophesied highways from the Atlantic to the Pacific. We now have them, and on the subject of roads this council is determined that we shall have good streets and a sewer system."

Declaring he thought a great deal of the other four members of the city council, Mr. Robinson said it was their aim to make Glendale the best little city in the whole country.

"They have the determination to go ahead and no one can dictate to them. They are free to deal with everybody in Glendale and they want to represent you all. They do not need electric belts to keep them stimulated. Already they are going into their seventh meeting with only six paid for at the rate of $10 a session. I expect there will be at least fourteen meetings this month which will mean a loss of $80 for each."

Mr. Robinson concluded his address with the story of the Missouri mule which laid down in front of the Marysville drug store. The druggist gave a hypodermic stimulant and the mule ran off without its colored rider. The latter rushed in the store and said:

"Say, boss; just shoot a dime's worth of that stuff into me so I can stop that darn mule."

There will not be any need for a stimulant to be used on the present city government, Mr. Robinson assured the Chamber of Commerce.

C. E. KIMLIN, Member of the City Council: "Sometimes we fail to appreciate how much women mean to us. I have found that where I took the advice of my wife—and before that, my mother, I have not gone very far wrong. And I believe that if the Glendale Chamber of Commerce and the city council will take counsel with the women they will not go very far wrong.

"I am a great booster for Glendale and believe it to be the most wonderful town in the country. It was just such an evening as this—June 18,

Absorbs Nothing But Water, Is Big Tank and Always Soaked

When the Chamber of Commerce and City Councilmen were inspecting the new city reservoir yesterday afternoon, several happy remarks were heard, to-wit:

"So this is Peter Ferry's bathtub." Mr. Ferry is the contractor.

"Oh, the Glendale Greeks' theatre."

"What a wonderful swimming pool this would make."

The latter was Judge F. H. Lowe's cheering word as he climbed the dusty banks to the not-to-be-forgotten drink. But one member of the party said it did seem a shame to view the reservoir, become thirsty and then have nothing to drink—except water.

REGISTRAR OF ALIENS

George T. Brewster, desk sergeant of the local police department, was yesterday appointed by County Registrar D. B. Lyons as the registrar of aliens in the Glendale school district. The appointment is a temporary one.

ELKS' DRILL TEAMS GIVE EXHIBITION TO THOUSANDS

Large Crowd Watches Well Trained Squads Go Into Various Formations

Spirited and spectacular team drills at Exposition park attracted thousands of enthusiastic spectators to the Elks' doings yesterday afternoon.

If the plaudits of the multitude may be taken as a verdict first prize will be awarded to the famous Jackson, Mich., Zouaves. The finals in the drill are being held today.

This organization, commanded by a former colonel of the regular army, went through their difficult drill formations with a snap and precision that electrified the audience.

Their exhibition of wall scaling was given with an ease and poise that was evidence of long and arduous practice.

Quakers Spectacular

Second in popular favor was the Philadelphia brigade, which in point of equipment and colorful show, easily took first honors. Its spectacular mounted patrol, with their gorgeous uniforms of purple and white adorned with gold insignia was a marvel of flashing color. As a grand climax with the entire drill team drawn up in mass array and its famous band playing, a flock of white pigeons was turned loose in the middle of the parade grounds.

And Glendale's own were there. While outnumbered and outbedecked by those from the larger cities, the home town talent, under the direction of Captain W. C. Wattles, made a wonderful showing.

The following teams were adjudged to be the six best in yesterday's preliminary competition and will compete in the finals today, at the conclusion of which the prize winner will be announced.

Detroit, Jackson, Philadelphia, Salt Lake City, Phoenix and San Francisco.

Santa Monica Is Host

Down at Santa Monica many thousands of the visiting brothers were royally entertained. Scores of motion picture girls from Hollywood,

Former Service Boys Are Guests of Honor

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Simon, 633 North Brand boulevard, entertained recently in honor of seven ex-service men from Thornycroft. An enjoyable evening was spent in dancing and cards. Messrs. Watrous, Erickson, Malcolm, Lichtig, Kerns, Hayworth and East were the guests of honor. Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Simon were Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Carroll.

Glendale young ladies who were present were Miss Alice Beach, Miss Lila White, Miss Lila Webster, Miss Mary Logan, Miss Clara Pearson and the Misses Nelson.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Rucker Come Here From North

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Rucker and two children of Portland, Ore., recently surprised Mr. and Mrs. Clarence S. Catlin of 1010 East Lomita avenue, this city, by unexpectedly dropping in on them from the northern city. The families were former neighbors in Portland, Mrs. Catlin having been a girlhood chum of Mrs. Rucker.

From here the Ruckers left for Santa Barbara, where they will spend a few days with friends before starting on the return trip to Oregon. They have already been on the road three weeks.

Mrs. Henry Roeder Is Hostess to Her Niece

Mrs. Henry Roeder of 344 North Maryland avenue is entertaining her niece, Mrs. Wesley Billings of Paso Robles, who was formerly Miss Myrtle Putnam of Glendale. Miss Elsa Roeder, who had been visiting her sister, Mrs. P. N. Weaver of Paso Robles, drove down with Mrs. Billings. Mrs. Roeder, with her daughter and niece, is planning to leave Thursday for a week-end trip to San Diego.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Kinney Return From Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Kinney and Mrs. A. Leighton of 123 West Elk avenue returned recently from a week's vacation at Stanley park. They motored up for the Fourth of July celebration and barbecue there and remained for the duration of the week.

LOCAL ELKS' LODGE HAS OPEN HOUSE FOR VISITORS

Real Hospitality Is Being Shown by Glendale; Big Parade Is Tomorrow

All Glendale Elks who are to take part in the grand revisional review parade in Los Angeles tomorrow morning are requested to be at divisional location at Olive street, between Fourteenth and Pico streets, facing south, at 10 a. m., sharp.

The local lodge of Elks is a beehive of activity these days, keeping open house here, entertaining at the Glendale headquarters at 605 South Grand avnue, Los Angeles, and attending to the many duties connected with this week's gathering.

At headquarters a musical program will be given tonight for the entertainment of visitors. John Roman, who has charge of the local headquarters, is seeing to it that adequate refreshments in the line of punch will be served.

Last night was gala night at the local headquarters and the merriment continued into the "wee sma" hours. At the conclusion of the concert, given in Westlake Park by the Philadelphia band, many members of this famous delegation of musicians motored out to Glendale and were the guests of the local lodge.

Solemn Tribute Is Paid

Notwithstanding the many other activities that are now engaging the attention of members of the local lodge, a recess from the present round of gaities was taken yesterday afternoon to pay the last tribute of respect to Henry Willhoff, a member of the Del Rio, Texas, lodge, No. 837, who was buried at Fillmore. The late Mr. Willhoff was for many years a resident of Fillmore, and as most of the Fillmore brothers are members of the Glendale lodge, the latter was requested to conduct the services.

Judge Barnes of Fillmore acted as Leading Knight and James McBryde, local member, served as acting chaplain. A. F. Priest, exalted ruler, and Hadley Brown, royal

Mrs. Axel Anderson Is Surprised on Birthday

Mrs. Axel Anderson of 1301 South San Fernando Road was subjected to an exceptionally pleasant surprise yesterday morning when a number of her friends "dropped" in to help her celebrate her birthday. The gay affair took place at about ten o'clock, when Mrs. Anderson was summoned to the front door by a most persistent series of knocks. Upon opening the door she was confronted by a group of smiling well-wishers, who at onece showered her with felicitations as well as numerous useful and ornamental gifts.

The self-invited guests immediately set about to decorate the house in a manner fitting to the occasion. This was accomplished by a tasteful combination of pink carnations and various other spring flowers.

At 12 o'clock several of the guests served a delicious mid-day luncheon in honor of their delighted hostess. This was followed by an afternoon of music and games, during which time courses of ice-cream and cake were served.

Those who took part in the happy occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gerth, Ethel Gerth, Mr. and Mrs. A. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Gerth, Mrs. A. Wallace and Mrs. A. L. Sullivan.

Mrs. H. M. Leek Learns of Death of Brother

Mrs. H. M. Leek of 224 South Louise street has received word of the death of her only brother, T. L. Bordon of Laray, Missouri.

Mr. Bordon was one of the first men to offer himself as a volunteer in 1861 and during the civil war served under Colonel David Moore in the Twenty-first Missouri Volunteers. He served five years and fought in the battles of Shilo, Corinth and Gettysburg and was in one of the contingents that marched with Sherman to the sea.

Mr. Bordon has been an invalid for years as a result of the hardships he suffered during the war and after a long life of uncomplaining suffering he passed away July 7.

Mrs. Leek has had many sorrows to bear during the past winter. Her daughter, Lulu Leek, passed away less than a year ago and in January she lost her only sister. The death of her brother leaves her the sole survivor of a family of eight children.

Today's World News In Brief

(By United Press to Glendale Evening News)

STOCK MARKET SHOWS STRENGTH AT OPENING TODAY

NEW YORK, July 13.—The stock market showed considerable strength at the opening today, largely as a result of President Harding's statement on the necessity for lower taxes. After opening at 100, up ½, Mexican Petroleum rallied to nearly 102. Atlantic Gulf was up ⅜ at 24¼ and Asphalt up ⅜ at 49¼. Rails also were fractionally higher.

JAPAN NOT READY TO ANSWER HARDING'S INVITATION

TOKIO, July 12.—The Japanese foreign office in an interview today stated that the favorable attitude of the Japanese government toward the principle of disarmament, already announced several times by Baron Uchida, remains unchanged. The government, however, is not ready as yet to make a direct statement regarding its position toward the Harding proposal. The Japanese press, the commercial organizations and the public generally is favorable to Japan entering the conference, but the political leaders are rather indefinite in their answers, wanting to know the scope of the conference before committing themselves.

LEAGUE WILL BE ASKED TO DEFER DISARMAMENT MOVE

PARIS, July 13.—A motion to defer all action by the league of nations regarding disarmament until after the Washington conference will be made by the French delegation as soon as the league disarmament committee convenes here Saturday, it was learned today. In view of the fact that such a discussion by the league would be more or less perfunctory without American participation, it was assumed that the matter either would be ignored entirely or would be handled on a basis preliminary to the Washington conference. The entire French press was enthusiastic over Premier Briand's acceptance of Harding's invitation. The newspapers also regarded any activities by the legaue regarding disarmament in a secondary light.

PACIFIC QUESTION TO BE DISCUSSED IN THE SENATE

WASHINGTON, July 13.—The "Pacific question" is to be fully aired in the senate before it is taken up in the conference of the powers projected by President Harding. Within the next two weeks a number of senators intend to make speeches on the Pacific situation, as it involves the relations of the United States with other nations, the disarmament question and the peace of the world generally. Senators Johnson, California, and McCormick, Illinois, are prepared to speak at any time. McCormick has gathered evidence concerning Japan's activities in Shantung, the Chinese province taken over by Japan after it had been wrested from Germany during the war. McCormick, Johnson and the others intend to discuss Shantung, Yap, Pacific cables, the Russian situation and the history of Japan's policies, particularly as bearing upon the Anglo-Japanese alliance.

IRISH PEACE NEGOTIATIONS THURSDAY AFTERNOON

LONDON, July 13.—The Irish peace negotiations will open formally at 4:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, it was officially announced today. The first meeting of Premier Lloyd George and Eamon De Valera will be held at the former's offices at 10 Downing street, it was stated. Although the formal conference with Premier Lloyd George does not start until tomorrow, plans were made for "conversations" between members of the Sinn Fein delegation and representatives of the British government. Jan Smuts, premier of South Africa, who is credited more than any other single person with making the peace negotiations possible, was the principal figure in these informal meetings. Today's "conversations" were intended to smooth the way for the formal negotiations through adjustment of many minor technical matters, such as the course of procedure. This would largely be in the hands of Smuts.

MRS. KABER COLLAPSES DURING BROTHER'S TESTIMONY

CLEVELAND, O., July 13.—Mrs. Catherine Eva Kaber was carried out of the courtroom today when she collapsed during the testimony being given by her brother, Charles Brickel. Brickel was being questioned concerning his mother, Mrs. Mary A. Brickel, also under indictment for the murder of the wealthy Daniel Kaber. Brickel was asked if his mother had set fire to the Kaber home. He replied that his mother did not set fire to the house, that she was sick at the time and that "they could prove it." Mrs. Kaber, who had been watching her brother intently, fell from her chair to the floor, shrieking hysterically, when her brother reached this point in his testimony. She collapsed and was carried from the courtroom. When she was revived, Mrs. Kaber cried, "Marian, Marian!" Marian is her daughter, Miss Marian McArdle, 21, also under first degree indictment in connection with the Kaber murder.

FIVE NATIONS MAY WORK OUT TREATY AT MEETING

WASHINGTON, July 13.—Official replies from Japan and Italy to President Harding's invitation to a disarmament conference still were lacking today. However, government officials here were confident that both these powers would accept. President Harding has started a movement which may develop a practical "association of nations" and replace the treaty of Versailles and the League of Nations as the foundation for future international relations, according to belief here today. A new treaty among the United States and the other four great powers, Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan, which later probably would be ratified by other nations, is expected to be worked out in the conference to assemble here within a few months. This treaty would be principally an agreement for limitation and probably eventual reduction of staggering armaments. Such a treaty would also be expected to contain a number of broad policies for settlement of major questions of irritation, now mainly involved in the Pacific. The sense of these policies probably would be to guarantee the "open door" and equal opportunity, not only in the Pacific but throughout the world. That policy has been the keynote of Secretary of State Hughes' administration so far. Agreement on this policy probably would abrogate as unnecessary existing pacts and agreements in the far east, among them the Anglo-Japanese alliance, the Lansing-Ishii agreement recognizing Japan's "special position" in the east and the Root-Takashira agreement guaranteeing the "open door" in China. Such a policy would naturally go hand in hand with disarmament as tending to remove the causes of war.

A. GELMOR'S SHOP IS ROBBED; $2000 IN GOODS MISSING

Burglars broke into the tailoring establishment of A. Gelmor, at 138 South Brand boulevard, sometime during the night and made off with merchandise and suits valued at $2,000. Several hundred dollars worth of cloth was left untouched on the shelves. Entrance was effected from the rear. There was no insurance.

The robbery was first discovered by G. W. Biggins of the Elite Sweet Shop, situated at 134 South Brand boulevard, two doors above the tailoring establishment. On opening his store this morning Biggins discovered the scattered remains of broken glass at the rear of the premises. An investigation showed that the place had been entered and ransacked.

Biggins' own store was protected in the rear only by a light screen, the window having been left open. However, those who had conducted the raid evidently had secured all that they were after, for no attempt to molest the candy store was made. Biggins immediately notified the local police and a detail, composed of Officers John Scales, M. G. Collins and W. Trautwein, were soon on the scene of crime.

Proprietor Is Injured

The store has been closed for some time, A. Gelmor, the proprietor, having been severely injured in an auto accident at Riverside several weeks ago, when the machine in which he was riding with his wife, collided with a heavy touring car. Upon being notified of the robbery by the police Gelmor, although still suffering and with his head heavily bandaged as a result of his injuries, immediately came to his store. After checking up he declared that the loss would amount to at least $2,000. At the time of his accident he had eighty-five bolts of cloth on hand. Of these sixty-two had been taken, besides several hundred dollars worth of silk, two men's suits, a lady's chinchilla coat and suit. About $500 of cloth was left on the shelf. Whether the burglars became scared and left before completing the job, or whether they had secured all that they were able to take away is not known.

Becomes Hysterical

Mrs. Gelmor, wife of the proprietor, upon viewing the ransacked premises, became hysterical, and was calmed only after the officers had impressed upon her the necessity of giving a lucid and detailed description of the stolen property. The Gelmors have only recently started the tailoring business in Glendale, and the loss, coming immediately following Mr. Gelmor's recent accident, is a severe one.

That the robbery was the work of Los Angeles or other outsiders is the opinion of Officer Scales. An attempt was made to jimmy the window with some narrow instrument, probably a large screwdriver. In

Sisterhood Class of Methodists to Picnic

The Sisterhood class of the First Methodist church will hold its annual picnic Thursday afternoon at La Ramada park. All the members are requested to bring their husband or a friend and a plate, cup, fork and spoon. The class will serve lunch at 6 o'clock. The committee in charge of the affair includes Mrs. Hallett, Mrs. Simmona and Mrs. R. P. Colber.

Mrs. John W. Sharpe Present at Ceremony

Mrs. John W. Sharpe and Miss Gladys Sharpe of 1141 East Elk avenue went to Los Angeles Tuesday night to attend the marriage of Miss Florence Osler and Stanley Foote at St. James Episcopal church. Miss Osler and Miss Sharpe were classmates when they were students at Mills College.

Mrs. P. E. Cory Now Regaining Her Health

Mrs. P. E. Cory, 820 South Central avenue, who has had a severe attack of bronchial pneumonia, is now convalescing. However, doctor's orders will keep her quiet for several weeks. She is still under the care of a trained nurse.

Mrs. J. A. Robinson of 420 Oak street is the guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Ramsey of Los Angeles. Next week the party will enjoy an outing at Santa Monica.

Dr. H. R. Harrower's new building on East Broadway is rapidly nearing completion. His residence on the same street is also rapidly assuming a homey appearance.

Mrs. Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hendricks of East Broadway, is expected here soon from Chicago for a visit and to escape the terrible heat in that section of the country.

Miss Marian Tripp of Tucson, Arizona, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Rowley of 334 West Vine street. Miss Tripp was formerly a resident of southern California, her home being at Tujunga.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. McClusky of Minneapolis, Minn., this week moved into their new home at 1301 East Lexington drive. The pretty bungalow was recently purchased from John E. Colvin.

J. S. Gendron and family have located at 617½ North Brand. Mr. Gendron is a former Oklahoma oil man, who is now connected with the Huntington Union Oil and Gas Syndicate of Southern California.

C. Daughtery and family, relatives of S. C. Leppelman, 357 West Milford, have recently arrived from St. Louis, Mo., and are located at 131 South Pacific. Both families are now on an auto camping trip.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Vanderwood of 519 North Kenwood street have just returned from a week's visit in Riatlo where they were guests of Mrs. Vanderwood's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McQuiston.

Mrs. George Bancroft, mother of Mrs. H. E. Fry of 333 West Cerritos avenue is very ill following a stroke of paralysis she suffered Friday. As Mrs. Bancroft is 80 years old her condition is considered very serious.

A fishing party, composed of Frank Richardson, Charles Potter and W. N. Pierce, left Glendale this morning for Santa Monica, where they expect to remove several dozen of the finny tribe from their watery homes.

Dr. and Mrs. St. Claire Whytock and little son, Robert, are guests in the home of Dr. and Mrs. M. J. Whytock, 411 North Jackson street. Dr. Whytock has just graduated from the university at Pullman, Washington, as a veterinary surgeon, and plans to make his home in Glendale.

Mrs. Mary Ryan, principal of the Broadway school, who has been recuperating from a serious illness, left Tuesday evening for San Francisco where she will visit her daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Hyde. Mrs. Ryan will not return until the middle of September when she will take possession of an apartment in the pretty duplex bungalow she has just completed on North Maryland.

Mrs. Nanno Woods entertained recently several co-students of the summer session of the University of California, where Mrs. Woods is studying dancing, dramatic games, eurythmics and physiotherapy. The guests were Miss Lettie Carroll of Calexico, Dr. Edna Jerrue and Miss Ruth Malmberg of Los Angeles, Miss Natalia Haraszthy of Hollywood and Dr. Catherine Allen of San Francisco. Mrs. Woods' cool, shady garden was enjoyed during the afternoon. Later on delicious refreshments were served.

Visiting Elk Is Injured

A Los Angeles hospital announced today that it had been found necessary to amputate a part of each foot of C. O. Yelton, visiting B. P. O. E. delegate of Oklahoma City, who was injured in a street car accident.

The accident sustained by Yelton is said to be the first serious one of the convention.

"The great Order of Elks is no longer purely a social organization where good fellows get together."

This was the keynote of the address of William Wallace Mountain, immediately after his election late yesterday as Grand Exalted Ruler of the B. P. O. E.

"While the Elks are the best fellows on earth, and love to meet in a social way and have a good time," Mountain said, "they also have been doing a definite and great work for humanity.

"Today this great order should be the open door to every white man 21 years of age who is and wants to be a real all-American good citizen."

Girl Scouts, Troop I, Meet With Ruth Dana

Glendale Troop No. 1, Girl Scouts of America, met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Ruth Dana, 1318 North Louise street. The scouts turned out in full force, even Cecil Chase and Margaret Longley, who are both suffering from injured ankles, were brought in machines so that they would not miss the business meeting and the pleasant social hour that followed. Plans for the next meeting, to be in the form of a picnic at Brookside park, were completed and dainty refreshments of ice-cream and cake served by the hostess.

The scouts who attended the meeting were Margaret Brown, Sarah Chandler, Amy Bainbridge, Lina Borthick, Winifred Parker, Lucile Allen, Cecil Chase, Dorothy Houston, Margaret Longley and Ruth Dana. Miss Gladys Sharpe, the captain, presided.

Mrs. L. W. Geddes Is Patient In Hospital

Mrs. L. W. Geddes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Byer, was operated on Sunday by Dr. T. C. Young at the Glendale Research hospital. While the operation was of a serious nature, Mrs. Geddes is reported to be doing nicely and her early recovery is anticipated.

Mr. and Mrs. Byers have rented the home of the Walter Cheevers at 1301 Kenneth road, while the latter are spending the summer at the beach.

Locals And Personals

Mrs. C. V. Hubbard of Santa Monica is spending this week in Glendale, where she is the guest of her sister, Dr. Libbie W. Ashcroft of 1125 Melrose avenue.

Mr. Hendricks of East Broadway will soon have another tenement house on his premises completed and ready for the renter who has already engaged the house.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. B. West and little daughter of Los Angeles have just moved into the house at 1251 South Maryland avenue. Mr. West, who is a former service man, is an attorney with offices in Los Angeles.

Douglas Wilson of Riverside, a brother of Mrs. T. S. Caldwell is a house guest at the T. S. Caldwell home, 335 West Broadway, while taking a summer school course at the University of Southern California.

Miss Alma Williams of 1125 Melrose avenue spent Tuesday in Hollywood, where she visited a number of former neighbors and friends. In the afternoon she attended the marriage of her former high school chum, Miss Margaret Powers.

A much welcomed new-arrival in Southern California is the 8½-pound baby girl, born to Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Kimble of 315 West Garfield avenue on July 12. The little lady is their second child and the happiest member of the family is her brother, Robert. Mrs. Kimble is at Burbank hospital and is reported doing very nicely.

together with bathing beauties from the beach, mingled with the guests. Music was provided by the Santa Monica Elks' band and the Redondo Beach Elks' band.

Last night was devoted to musical entertainment throughout the city. Out at beautiful Westlake park, the Philadelphia band, rated as one of the star musical aggregations of the country, performed before many thousands, who took advantage of the opportunity of attending an open air concert. At the Philharmonic auditorium a minstrel show and musical program was given by the Minneapolis delegation.

Salvation Army Praises Elks

Praise was given to the Elks last night by Brigadier C. R. Boyd, divisional commander of the Salvation Army for southern California, who declared the Elks to be the greatest ally of the Salvation Army in its work for the betterment of humanity, when he presented to Grand Exalted Ruler Wm. M. Abbott a banner in recognition of the Elks' work.

Boyd described the great work done by the Elks during the recent Pueblo disaster, and the manner in which they co-operated with the Salvation Army. This he declared to be typical of the generous and open-hearted spirit of Elkdom.

Program for Today

The official program of business and entertainment for Elks' reunion today follows:

At 10 a. m.—Grand Lodge session at Alexandria.

Bids for Christian Church Received

The scheduled business meeting of the building committee of the Central Christian church took place last night at the home of Mrs. A. K. Crawford, 301 North Cedar street, with all of the nine members in attendance.

The principal business was the opening of bids for the erection of the proposed new church building, which is planned to be under way within the next few weeks. A number of bids were presented, but no contract was awarded at last night's gathering.

Robert H. Orr, who has been selected as architect for the proposed structure, is the general supervisor of the building campaign. The bids are received and opened by him, and then presented to the building committee. Another meeting will take place in the near future, at which time a contractor will probably be chosen.

The members of the building committee are Floyd Mercer, chairman, and W. B. Kirk, F. L. Thompson, Lee Kaster, John M. Ray, R. P. Jodon, George F. Staub, Mrs. A. K. Crawford and Mrs. E. H. Learned.

Miss Harriet Nichols J. N. Patterson's Bride

At high noon yesterday Miss Harriet M. Nichols of this city became the bride of James N. Patterson of Los Angeles, the ceremony taking place at the home of Rev. W. E. Edmonds, pastor of the local Presbyterian church. Only a few of the immediate friends of the couple were witnesses of the affair.

Mrs. Patterson is well known to hundreds of Glendalians, she having lived here twelve years. She is the daughter of Mrs. William Nichols of 217½ Hawthorne street. Mr. Patterson is connected with the Baldridge Drug company of Los Angeles.

Miss Ruth Spafford Honors New Arrivals

Miss Ruth Spafford entertained Sunday night at her home in Los Angeles in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Gus A. Lavison who have just recently arrived from Texarkana to make their home in Glendale. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Lavison, Mr. and Mrs. Bullock, Miss Mildred McKee and Joe Webster, all of Glendale and Miss Lois Percey and C. E. Percey of Sunland. Mrs. Lavison was Miss Gladys McMullen before her marriage last summer to Mr. Lavison and is a chum of both Miss McKee and Miss Spafford.

Let Us Help You with Your Canning

Right in the thick of canning time!

How the work does pile up—and canning, pickling and preserving can't wait—things simply must be put up now while they're fresh and plentiful.

Why not let us help?

We can't put up your fruit for you—no one else can do that just right.

But we can take every stitch of washing and ironing off your hands, and do it just as nicely as though you were looking after it at home.

And that means two days more each week for the filling of pantry shelves.

Now, isn't that a good idea?

Glendale, Straight Ahead! Prominent Citizens Plan

eight years ago—that I came to Glendale. And returning to Glendale the other day from a trip to the San Joaquin valley, I said to my wife, 'Surely this is the most beautiful spot in all of the world.'"

As a last word, Mr. Kimlin said: "When the city council takes some action in which you do not agree, you should say that you will stand back of them, anyway."

S. A. DAVIS, Member of the City Council: "Since being on the council it has been my privilege to 'listen in' and after being with them a half dozen times now, the four other members have my full confidence, and I believe I have their's. I am strongly in favor of the sewer question.

"I do not believe that any group of men can control this council, but personally I am willing to talk to anybody that has anything to offer. It will be a pleasure to work with a body of citizens like the Chamber of Commerce because it is composed of the business men whom we represent."

A. H. LAPHAM, Member of the City Council: "This city of 21,000 people has got out of the village class. Tre city government is now confronted by two things: The streets which were sadly neglected during war time, although Messrs. Watson and Nelson are to be congratulated on the work they have done with limited funds. Settlement of the public camp ground problem here for strangers within our gates is the other question with which City Attorney Shaw is dealing in a new ordinance.

JUDGE F. H. LOWE: "A few days ago we had an election. The people voting for those members of the council did so because they had unbounded confidence in their ability, honesty and judgment. I feel that those men are fully capable of dealing with the issues of today, and let me say that matters of greater moment have never presented themselves in this community before. However, these five men are not infallible and we cannot expect too much from them. Otherwise we would find Spencer Robinson singing to angels, Dwight Stephenson teaching law to St. Peter and Mr. Kimlin feeding grape nuts to the twelve apostles."

T. W. WATSON, City Manager: "Thursday night we plan to have the matter of the business district sewer before the council for discussion and those interested might well give considerable attention to this problem which is one of the most important things before us right now. There are conditions in the center of the business sestion that will require immediate action, but that is the only real problem we have in sanitation in Glendale at this time. The Verdugo Woodlands people have started on a local sewerage disposal system. And we have hopes that before long the means for a final solution of city-wide sewerage disposal will have been pointed out."

JAMES M. RHOADES, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce: "On behalf of the Chamber of Commerce, its only object in the meeting is to offer you members of the city council every assistance. There is no political significance here, but we are here tonight to back you up in your official duties."

Mr. Rhoades also touched on the question of finances and the inadequacy of the present quarters and urged the subscription for stock in the Citizens Building corporation. He stated that if the ladies would aid, a three-day carnival would be staged for three days in October, about the time it is expected the Chamber's new home will be ready in the new quasters being erected by the Citizens' concern.

ATTORNEY OWEN C. EMERY, director of the Chamber of Commerce: "If we expect to have a drawing power at our Chamber of Commerce meetings we must have someone new, someone with a national reputation, if possible," was one thought expressed. He also said:

"We now have a well-rounded city government and I am sure the new council will give this city a good administration. The thing we need most, however, is the money. Possibly by adjusting matters between the different departments Glendale will have a little of everything it needs."

HARTLEY SHAW, City Attorney: "If we don't agree, let us disagree gracefully and at least credit the city officials with good intentions."

Mr. Shaw dealt at some length with the hard task confronting the new city government and expressed the belief that they would make good.

DR. JESSIE A. RUSSELL: "You will find the women of Glendale where you already have found them, co-operating with you members of the council and Chamber of Commerce whether in conference or not. And they stand ready to co-operate with you in every way possible."

MRS. ELLA W. RICHARDSON: "In civic matters you will find the women here working hard on their solution." Days when community meetings were held in Verdugo Park were recalled by the speaker in showing how the city had progressed.

MRS. E. W. W. HAYWARD: "I am especially interested in the program of sewers and roads. While I do not have an automobile. I ride in the back seats of my friends' machines enough to know the bumps in Glendale streets. I will be glad to work on committees where woman's co-operation is necessary."

MRS. M. L. TIGHT: "For the last thirty-five years I have been working for the best interests of Glendale and expect to continue to work for them the same way in everything possible for the benefit of Glendale."

DR. CAROLINE PAINE-JACKMAN: "It must be a great pleasure for those who have been here thirty-five years, but for those who have been here two years, like myself, I want to say that we, too, are proud of Glendale. It is the best city I have ever lived in and I shall be glad to do something to help Glendale."

MRS. MARGARET I. BIGGS: "We are now in a new era of the world and it is not strange that women should take part in a gathering such as this. I believe that I am the youngest Glendaleite here, having been a resident of this city for only nine months, but wherever I can help in civic affairs I will do so."

R. S. PERSON: "I do not want to call myself a booster, for I dislike the word, but of all the towns in California Glendale has had most done for it by God Almighty. Every time I go away from Glendale and come back, I come with the feeling that here is really the garden spot of the Golden State."

During the course of many enlightening remarks Mr. Person declared: "Many come here with the idea of not taking up community burdens. They are well satisfied to live here—and that is all."

JESSE SMITH: "One thing that Glendale needs is unity. When we get a sewer system we will get the hotel. We will have to educate the people to support the sewer proposition."

In concluding his remarks Mr. Smith declared that nothing can stop this city from having a population of 50,000 within ten years.

J. G. Huntley urged more forum meetings, C. D. Lusby spoke appreciatively of the new city officials and declared he was back of them "regardless of how I voted," and J. A. Newton enlightened those present on business conditions in the east. Peter L. Ferry and D. L. Gregg also responded. C. C. Cooper, president of the Chamber of Commerce, presided.

J. A. Newton Is Shown About City; Policeman Acts as His Guide!

"Without 'kidding' ourselves—to use the language of the street—we have about as prosperous a place here as there is in the world today. We know nothing of the conditions east of the Mississippi river without seeing them. However, the worst of the depression is over, I believe, and things are gradually getting back to normal."

That is a summary of J. A. Newton's idea of the east, having returned from there recently. He spoke at the Chamber of Commerce dinner last night given in honor of the new city council.

Relating that he found easterners discourteous to strangers in many instances, he added that in one Indiana town he found just one man—a policeman—who spent two hours showing him about the little city.

Mr. Newton denied that he was under arrest, but caused a hearty laugh on the part of the diners.

this way they were unsuccessful, and they next attempted to remove the putty, which had been placed on the outside. This proving to be too slow, the lower pane was deliberately broken and the lock unfastened. As the goods taken were all of a bulky nature, the perpetrators of the crime are thought by the police to have driven to Glendale in a machine and the stolen property carted out of town in the same manner.

John M. Revesz, a local merchant, is one of the victims of the theft, having taken a suit to Gelmor's to be cleaned, shortly before the latter was injured.

Easily Identified

Mrs. Gelmor has been advertising in both the local and Los Angeles papers for someone to run the store during her husband's illness. Several applicants have called at the Elite Sweet Shop in quest of information, and G. W. Biggins, who first discovered the robbery, states that some of them were "hard-looking customers."

Most of the cloth bore the stamp of the manufacturers, and the local authorities have sent a description of this, together with one of the stolen suits, to the various police headquarters throughout the state. As the goods can be easily identified the authorities have hopes of apprehending the miscreants should the latter attempt to dispose of the stolen property.

Large Celebration by Local Methodist Folk

Rev. Charles H. Scott, former pastor of the local First Methodist church and now superintendent of the activities of the Pacific Palisades association, is in Glendale today completing arrangements for the big celebration which will take place on Friday at the Palisades. The affair, which will be known as "Glendale Invitation Day," will be in the form of a tour of inspection for the people of Glendale and the San Fernando valley.

A large party of local enthusiasts for the proposition will gather at the First Methodist church on Wilson avenue at 9 o'clock Friday morning, when they will leave in machines for the Pacific Palisades, which are located just north of Santa Monica. There they will be met by representatives of the association, who will conduct them over the points of interest of the 1100-acre vacation ground. At noon they will be entertained at luncheon at the famous Rustic Canyon dining room.

This vast Christian resort and educational center is claimed by its backers to be the world's greatest and most beautiful religious institution. The land has already been purchased and plans are now under way for the erection of numerous auditoriums, dining rooms, hotels, dormitories and other various buildings. The plan of development of the project is to disincorporate the present Huntington Beach Methodist assembly and to form a new organization, under a charter similar to those at Ocean Grove and Bay View. The main purpose will be to promote religion, educational and social welfare.

A few of the local business men who are backing the proposition are T. A. Wright, Ed Lee, William Reynolds, C. W. Ingledue, L. C. Yoeman, A. G. Lindley and Dr. C. R. Lusby.

Chief of Police and Mrs. J. P. Lampert, who left Glendale Sunday for a vacation trip to Spreckles, near San Francisco, where their married daughter resides, sends word they are having a delightful time.

So. Cal. Loan Assn. Has Annual Meeting

The Southern California Metropolitan Loan association which operates offices in Los Angeles and in Glendale held its annual business meeting last night and re-elected the present officers. It is one of the oldest organizations of its kind and is bringing thousands of dollars here for the financing of homes. Six per cent is paid on term investments—an excellent opportunity for people who want to make their savings pay them a worthwhile rate of interest, according to S. L. Roland, the manager of the concern, who resides in Glendale.

Are You Interested In Y. M. C. A.? Read!

Here's an opportunity for anyone interested in organizing a Y. M. C. A. to get a hundred dollar subscription and another century for a Y. W., too. R. S. Person at last night's banquet of the Chamber of Commerce directors and City Council offered to give those sums to obtain the places for the young people to have a good time.

GETS LIMIT FIRST DAY

The first day Horatio Butts went fishing in Sequoia National park he caught the limit, according to word he sent his father, H. M. Butts of the Monarch Auto Supply company. Frederick Butts and Wilfred Sutton also are enjoying the fishing and camping trip, but their luck is not reported.

A bronze statue representing Victory, and designed to commemorate the heroism of Australian soldiers, laid for over a year, dust-covered and forgotten, in the yard of the federal parliament house. The unfortunate oversight has been rectified and Australia's thanks have been sent to the sculptor.

"De man dat trusts to Luck," said Uncle Eben, "is always so ungrateful as to give his own smartness all de credit when Luck helps him out."

Pleasing Program Given by Charles W. Cadman

More than 100 guests enjoyed the program given by Charles Wakefield Cadman, under the auspices of the Junior Musical Club of Glendale, on Tuesday night at the home of Miss Veda Knapp, 214 West Chestnut street.

Mr. Cadman was assisted by Miss Elizabeth Mottern. The program consisted of five groups of compositions. The first, "The Dance in the Shiek's Tent," "Caravan Crossing the Desert," and "The Minstrel," which are late compositions designed to accompany a moving picture film to be presented this coming winter. The second group was sung by Miss Mottern, accompanied by Mr. Cadman. The third number was a story of Cadman's opera, "Shenowin," illustrated by "Spring Song of the Robin Woman," sung by Miss Mottern, and the "Intermezzo," which comes between the first and second acts. The third number was, perhaps, the most entertaining. Mr. Cadman brought with him a Flagolet, or Indian instrument similar to the clarionet, and played a number of Indian melodies.

The composer played "The Vanishing Race," music taken from Navajo tribal songs and "The Wolf Dance," a Blackfoot melody, and in closing Miss Mottern sang "Ho, Ye Warriors on the Warpath," and "From the Land of the Sky Blue Waters." As an encore she sang "At Dawning."

Mr. Cadman takes an unusual interest in the junior music clubs of Southern California, and gives much of his time to them. He will give a program at Thornycroft in August.

ANNEXATION ELECTION

Residents of the Viola Street District Election Precinct are awaiting the closing of the polls tomorrow night, when it will be definitely decided whether that section is to become a part of Glendale. Voting on the annexation proposition will take place from 6 a. m. until 7 p. m., the voting place to be located at the residence of E. F. Kulp, 1234 Viola street.

GIANTS, YANKEES IN HARD BATTLE TO CATCH LEADERS

Season About Half Over and Both Are Three Games Behind Top Teams

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, July 13.—Manhattan's hopes—the Giants and Yankees—will have to do some hustling if they are to get anything better than a runner-up's out of the world series money.

The season is just about half gone and as a result of wanted chances and opportunities the Giants and the Yankees are both three and one half games behind the two league leaders with no immediate prospect of improving.

Following the miserable showing of the Yanks against the White Sox, New York has just about forsaken the American leaguers and is looking to the Giants to bring the series to the Polo Grounds.

The Yanks have the failing of cleaning up on the first class clubs and losing to the second string teams just when the going is rough for the leaders.

Manager Not Popular

Much of the blame is being attached by the fans to Miller Huggins, a manager who has never been popular. Although there is no official foundation for the belief the bugs are expecting the boss colonels to make a switch in the management.

Pittsburg, now leading the National league, has an easier road ahead than the Giants. The Pirates finish the season with a long stay at home and although the figures do not show it, Gibson's men are generally regarded as a poor road club. The Giants have to finish the season on the road.

Not Yet Satisfied

John McGraw, boss of the Giants, who still leads the club from the bench is showing signs of a realization that something has to be done. His latest trade, Monroe and Winters for Red Causey, the Philadelphia pitcher means that the Giant chieftain is not satisfied with his staff.

Good results of the trade which brought Johnny Rawlings to second base from the Phils are apparent. The whole infield looks better and Rawlings is playing a great game.

Neither Pittsburg nor Cleveland, the two league leaders, are showing any signs of cracking. This is true of Cleveland especially, through the ability of the great Speaker, is weathering storm after storm in the way of accidents and erratic work from the pitchers. Both are playing real baseball and that explains it.

'Birth of Nation' Is at Glendale Theatre

"The Birth of a Nation" at the Glendale theatre, opening today probably will prove one of the greatest drawing cards that the theatre has ever had. Practically a new generation of theatre-goers has grown up since this spectacle was first produced and those regular habitues of the theatre who were present at the introduction of the first spectacle of the American screen will be interested to see that time has dimmed none of its genius.

The delicate characterization, the broad and sweeping conception, the gigantic scale of production which proclaimed Griffith the master of directors, appeals as strongly and powerfully today as it did six years ago. Though the screen spectacle has grown so quickly that statistics in six figures no longer startle, the magnitude of "The Birth of a Nation" is still worthy of note. The play contains 5000 scenes and presents 18,000 actors and 3000 horses, cost $500,000 for actual production expense and took eight months to produce. The reproduction of the Ku Klux rides commandeered a county for a day and cost $10,000. Women's dresses used 12,000 yards and Ku Klux Klan costumes 25,000 yards of cloth. Night photography of battle scenes was invented and perfected at a cost of $5000.

Griffith's genius in selecting his casts has been given prophetic demonstration. Practically every member of the entire cast of "The Birth of a Nation" today holds a position in the ranks of screen celebrities as star, director or actor of the first magnitude. Among these are Henry Walthall, Miriam Cooper, Mae Marsh, Ralph Lewis, Lillian Gish, Wallace Reid, Mary Alden, Joseph Henaberry, Raoul Walsh and Donald Crisp.

Madame Clement at the organ, will provide the necessarily wonderful musical accompaniment.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Colon Entertain City Force

The employees of the city engineering department were entertained at an informal party on Friday night of last week by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Colon of 443 West Colorado boulevard. Mr. and Mrs. Colon were residents of New York before making their home in Glendale.

Watching Scoreboard

Yesterday's hero—Babe Ruth. The king clouter hit two home runs off Dixie Davis—his thirty-third and thirty-fourth — winning for the Yanks against the Browns, 6 to 4. Coveleskie and Caldwell won a pair of games, for the Indians from the Red Sox 7 to 1 and 6 to 4. It was the champions' double win in three days.

Barnes allowed the Cardinals only four hits and the Giants won 8 to 2. George Kelly hit his thirteenth home run.

Grimm's homer with one on helped the Pirates beat the Phils 9 to 4.

Sargent tripled in the sixteenth inning and scored on a sacrifice fly by Bush, the Tigers beating the Athletics 2 to 1.

Three runs in the second inning gave the Reds a 5 to 3 win over the Robins.

Joe Oeschger, Brave pitcher, singled in the tenth inning and came around with the winning run on a sacrifice, a single and a sacrifice fly, the Cubs losing 1 to 2.

Schacht was rushed to the rescue in the ninth inning when the White Sox got after Courtney and Washington won 8 to 7.

Oakland overwhelmed Seattle yesterday in the first game of the series 10 to 1.

Sacramento gained a full game on San Francisco by winning yesterday, 7 to 0.

The Angels won from Salt Lake by the one-sided score of 11 to 4.

The only close game of the day was won by Vernon from Portland, 4 to 3.

Howard Berry, formerly one of Pennsylvania University's greatest athletes, has agreed to terms with the New York Giants and will sign a contract to play professional ball. Barr Warwick, end on last year's eleven and catcher on the nine, also signed a contract with the Pittsburg Pirates.

KID M'COY, VISITOR HERE, DESCRIBES RECENT FIGHT

Former Pugilist Asserts He Would Have Liked Chance In Second Round

Kid McCoy (Norman Selby) who returned to Los Angeles Monday night from the east where he had journeyed to witness the late fistic encounter between one Monsieur Carpentier and William Harrison Dempsey, was in Glendale yesterday visiting his sister, Mrs. Mabel Judd of 130 South Orange street.

McCoy, who in his day was one of the most famous ring gladiators the world has ever known, having, as a middle and light-heavyweight, met and vanquished some of the best of the heavyweights, has forsaked the padded ring for the less strenuous life of the picture game. He is at present employed by one of the large picture producing companies.

That Second Round

"Carpentier surely jarred Jack up a bit in that second round," declared McCoy, "but, shucks, he never had a chance. Dempsey was too big and strong for him and in the third round he simply murdered the Frenchman with body blows.

"But listen, I sure would liked to have been in Carpentier's place in the second round. There would be a new champion today."

McCoy while at the fight met both Dempsey and Carpentier, and also took a panoramic view of the arena with its 90,000 spectators. While in New York he was the guest of John McCormack, the famous singer.

In addition to being known as a boxer, McCoy is the present day matrimonial champion, the late Nat Goodwin being the only man of modern times who was able to take more punishment in the home and hearth battle. Goodwin took the count seven times, so McCoy will have to hustle to equal this record.

New Millinery Store to Open on Thursday

The Gilbert Millinery opens on Thursday, July 14, at 123 North Brand boulevard. A distinction of the store lies in the fact that no trimming department will be maintained and that it will display the prices of each individual hat in both store and window arrangements.

While the new store will carry the most advanced styles from the great eastern centers it will appeal to discerning buyers because of the popular prices to be maintained. Smart, silk backed, Duvetyn's with sailor effect and combination feather and ostrich novelty band designs and tangerine coloring will vie, both in price and distinctiveness with the matrons' hats, felt outing hats and other creaions for girls, young women and matrons.

New and exclusive designs will be on display every day with no duplication of individual styles. Patrons will be kept in close touch with the latest eastern and European styles by a comprehensive illustrated news service to be displayed in the show windows and changed twice weekly. Thus the windows of the Gilbert Millinery store will undoubtedly be the source of considerable diversion to Glendale shoppers.

The announcement made by Jane E. Gilbert, proprietress of the store that prices are to be maintained at as low a figure as can be found in Los Angeles is bound to be of particular attraction and this combined with the wide experience of the "Gilberts" in Boston and New York style centers assures the popularity of the store. The entrance of a smart shop of the character of "Gilberts" to Glendale is a convenience and asset which will undoubtedly be generally embraced.

Cut in Taxes Depends Upon Budget Official

By HERBERT W. WALKER
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, July 13.—Hope for a substantial reduction in the amount of federal taxes depends almost entirely on the "economy axe" of Charles G. Dawes, new budget officer, it was shown today with the final enactment of the last appropriation measure—the naval bill.

Congress, a summary shows, has authorized the expenditure of approximately $3,585,000,000 during the present fiscal year which began last July 1. Last year for the same purpose, a total of $3,717,271,392.90 was appropriated, the reduction thus being only about $132,000,000. This represents a reduction of only thirteen days' governmental spending, as the expenditures have been averaging $10,000,000 a day.

Dawes has stated that he proposes to cut the appropriations by 25 per cent during the coming year which would effect a reduction of approximately $500,000,000.

The total appropriations do not include any appropriations for the railroads which last year received $800,000,000. So far no appropriation has been made for the current year, but it is expected that probably $400,000,000 will be necessary.

Want Private Yacht? Ex-Kaiser's for Sale

LOS ANGELES, July 13.—In re the estate of William Hohenzollern, insolvent.

William, or William's creditors, would sell his private wacht, Meteor V, now at Kiel, for $170,000.

Furthermore, William would sell it to Douglas Fairbanks of the U. S. A.

The latter today received a letter from Hans Sarnow, of the Nord Deutsch bank, Hamburg, offering the palatial yacht to Fairbanks "for immediate delivery." It is of finest Krupp steel, built in 1914, and is thirty-seven metres over all.

But Mr. Fairbanks has his own ideas on the matter.

"What could I do with the thing?" he confided to the United Press. "It's too big for the natatorium at my place at Beverly Hills, and I don't want it cluttering up the property room at my studio.

"No, thanks; tell Bill I guess I'll get along without his yacht."

Mrs. Helen W. Sawyer Tells of Bad Trail

Mrs. Helen W. Sawyer of 432 North Jackson street has been taking pleasant little week-end trips with her children, Henry and Barbara, since the close of school. Sunday they visited Balboa beach and the Fourth of July they spent at Crater camp. Mrs. Sawyer gives a graphic account of the trail leading up to Crater camp. The curves are "very sudden" and no fences protect the road from the bluff.

On their return trip one car overturned and nearly all the tourists walked down in preference to braving the trip in a machine, she says. Mrs. Sawyer's machine nearly went over the bluff at one point, and the memory of the hazards of the trip almost blot out the pleasant hours spent at the camp, she says.

'DEAR KATIE' LEARNS ELKS AND DEARS INVADE SOUTH

Girl Back In Old Home Town Informed Convention of Bills Is Under Way

Glendale, July 13, 1921.

Dear Katie—Well, yesterday I decided as how I better go to Los Angeles and get a few facts and interviews on the Elks' convention.

I felt like it was my duty to inform all the visitin Elks that if they didn't come out and see Glendale before they went home again, that they might as well of stayed to home in the first place.

Well Katie, when I got off the P. E. at the corner of 6th and Broadway, right away I got so rattled I didn't know whether I was a mere strivin reporter lookin for interviews or whether I was a innocent bystander in a street car riot.

The crowds and traffic on Broadway would of made State street in Chicago look like Sunday morning in Doughnut Center, Mo.

There was three bands comin from four directions and all playin to once.

Traffic was tied up like a sore thumb on wash day.

The way the traffic cops was wavin' their arms in the air looked like they must of got their education on the S. P., switchin freight cars.

Plenty of Excitement

Flags and gay colors and decorations on the buildings and on the trolley wires was wavin' in the breeze like clothes on the wash line.

Well, I started strollin' throu the crowds which didn't seem to care whether I strolled throu or not. The crowds was pushin and yellin and laughin and the music of the bands was inspirin' and wonderful. I strolled along at the rate of a mile every Tuesday.

The Gibson girls, the Fisher girls and the Nell Brinkley types in all their peacock's plumage was thicker than flies in the sugar bowl.

One laughin' sprite, wearin' a impudent red hat, says Hello Bill to me, but I didn't say nothin' back at her, cause I could see as how she'd made a error, cause I never seen her before or since.

And Katie, the glare and glitter of the bands, the smiles and jests of fair maidens and the jolly, gingery, jazzery jam of elated Elks would of made Peggy ReJoyce.

I hadn't seen anything like it in a couple centuries. There was Elks, Elks everywhere—and not a drop to drink. I saw more Elks in Los Angeles than there is colonels in Kentucky.

There was Elks from every corner of the world and parts of New York.

And Katie, every Elk has to wear a purple ribbon on his hat, which the same, I guess, is a nice plan, cause no doubt before this fusstival of frolic, feasting and flowers is finally finished, some of 'em will be wanderin around and singin' "Oh, show me the way to go home."

Proper Directions

And so if the name of their home town is pasted on their hats Katie, the home delegation will know whether to send 'em back to Oakland or New Jersey, which the same would be bad enough either way. But the visitin Elk's ain't havin' all the fun Katie. The natives is enjoyin' the innocent pastime of searchin' throu the crowds for old familiar faces from "back home."

And when they find 'em, they slap 'em on the back or take their hats off to 'em as the case may be and then they ask 'em as how is everybody back there in the old town and is Hub Ryan still runnin' the pool hall and for land's sakes, did Annastacia really get married after all.

And Katie, everybody seemed so awful pleased to see their old friends again, that I begun to feel kinda sentimental and to wish I could see somebody from back there in Oshkosh so I could have a interview with 'em as to how did they like Los Angeles, if at all and then I could bring 'em out to Glendale and show 'em the town which made California famous.

And Katie, I wandered around till 5 p. m. in the afternoon, but Elks from Oshkosh was harder to find than a door on a one-man street car and the only one I did see was a guy that owes me $2.00, but he saw me first so I didn't get no interview with him.

Well Katie, the Elks is havin' a great blow out this week and I bet when they go back home that each and every one will eternally be a walkin' advertisement for this land of Sunshine Unlimited.

Yours—Limited.

E. C. HALE.

Glendale Hardware to Be Closed Tomorrow

Among the many local business houses which will close during the day tomorrow, the Glendale Hardware company announces that it will be closed all day. This will give the Messrs. Webb and their employes an opportunity of enjoying the Elks' parades in Los Angeles.

NEWS REPORTER IS TOLD SOME NEWS; IT'S GOOD NEWS

Mrs. A. Fleming, 1137 East Elk Avenue, Tells About--- Well, We're Modest

What is news, and when is it?

Mrs. A. Fleming lives at 1137 East Elk avenue. She has lived there for a good many years, and is pretty good authority on Glendale and everything that concerns it.

Yesterday a reporter for The Evening News called her on the telephone, introduced himself and respectfully asked for some news item.

"I can't give you any news today, for I havent' time," answered Mrs. Fleming briskly, "but I would like to tell you what I think of you."

Reporter Is Informed

The reporter courageously stiffled a strong impulse to hang up the receiver, having had in the dim past unpleasant experiences along that line. But duty, and a sneaking desire to know the worst, conquered.

"What do you think?" he tremulously inquired.

"Why, I think your paper is the best booster Glendale has. You are always working for Glendale. You've done more to make this town what it is today than anything else in Glendale. But I guess that isn't news."

But isn't it?

Greatest Move Behalf World Peace, Is Claim

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, July 13.—"President Harding's call for a disarmament conference is the greatest move for world peace since the destruction of German militarism."

This is the opinion of Dr. David Starr Jordan, chancellor emeritus of Stanford University and noted world peace advocate, expressed in an interview with the United Press.

"It should be quite easy for the United States, Great Britain and Japan to reach an agreement on limiting armaments in the Pacific because there are no real grievances to be settled," Dr. Jordan said.

"Most of the trouble and suspicion in the Pacific has been stirred up by the irresponsible talk of those in all three nations who want larger armaments.

"I am in favor of making the Pacific like the Great Lakes as far as armaments go, provided the United States can reach an agreement to make it mutual with Great Britain and Japan. These three nations are the only ones that have real navies, or are likely to have in the next century. There is no more need of warships on the Pacific than there is for Canada and the United States to have large and tax-burdening battle fleets on the Great Lakes.

"An agreement to disarm in the Pacific should be easily reached if approached in the proper spirit by this country. If Japan has to go on building battleships she will be bankrupt within ten years. England cannot undertake to build a Pacific fleet herself, and her colonies are very hesitant about undertaking the large expense of contributing three-fifths of the cost of a Pacific fleet—the toll that England will expect if she builds a Pacific fleet.

"I believe the proposed conference is the biggest step in the direction of world peace which has been made since the kaiser was overthrown and German militarism crushed.

"I do not believe that the conference will at first discuss the question of disarmament of the world's armies, as that is a very much more difficult problem. However, the inclusion of France, the world's greatest military power, and of Italy, which has had similar ambitions, may bear fruit at later conferences, wider in scope and including a number of other nations, which will attempt to reduce the standing armies of the world, and send soldiers back to civilian life, where they belong."

Wanda Hawley Picture Palace Grand Feature

Every wife who feels embonpoint gradually enveloping her; every husband who has either a fat or a thin wife; every vamp who is trifling with the affections of some other woman's husband; every—well, in fact, everybody who likes clean, brisk comedy, should see "The House That Jazz Built," the latest Wanda Hawley picture which plays today at the Palace Grand.

The story is an adaptation of one of Sophie Kerr's Saturday Evening Post stories, "Sweetie Peach," and deals with the increasing wealth and diminishing affections of a young couple who started poor but happy, and grow rich and unhappy.

Then in addition to the feature Fatty Arbuckle, Buster Keaton and Al St. John will be seen in a revival of their famous film, "The Bell Boy." As usual the orchestra will furnish music equal to the pictures.

GREATEST BATTLE CENTER

The little country of Belgium has been the scene of more important battles than any other country of the world.

Mrs. Dan Bruce Takes Lease on Home Here

Mrs. Dan Bruce, the daughter of George Duffet of 321 Vine street, has leased the home of Mrs. Theodore Pierce at 317 Vine street for the summer. Mrs. Bruce was well known in southern California a few years ago when, as Margot Duffet, she was a member of the Burbank stock company, under the Morosco management. Since her marriage she has traveled with her husband on the Orpheum and Keith circuits. Last year she took her baby, Ben Duffet Bruce, with her on the road with his nurse to care for him and he seemed to thrive on the constant change of climate. In September Mrs. Bruce will return to New York and travel on Keith's circuit playing in a new sketch.

PLAN CARNIVAL FOR TUJUNGA'S LEGION SEPTEMBER 4-5

Sum of $4500 Wanted for the Purpose of Paying Off Debt Now on Hall

More than a hundred residents of the community of Tujunga attended a specially-called mass meeting on Wednesday night of last week and made initial steps in launching plans for a huge carnival and celebration to take place on September 4 and 5. The purpose of the affair will be to raise $4500 for the local American Legion post, which would pay up their debt on their present meeting hall.

So enthusiastic and interested was the audience in the proposed project that they pledged the sum of $1200 as a guarantee fund to protect the enterprise from financial failure.

Officials Chosen

Some of the leading proponents of the proposition were Addison Wells, who was made director-in-chief of the proposition, John S. McGroarty, Major Blake, Post Commander A. J. Scribner and M. U. Hartranft. Definite announcements regarding the affair will be made in the near future.
